Napping Agreement

I, _____, understand that my child, _____, while under the care of It Takes a Village, will be provided with a napping/resting period in the p.m. session.

Children in the 3 year old program will be provided with a padded mat to rest on. Individual towels/blankets which are provided by the child's family will be used to cover the mats for comfort. Linens will be sent home weekly or sooner if necessary for laundering.

Children in the 4 year old program will rest on towels/blankets provided by the child's family. In addition, mats are available for children requiring naps. Linens will be sent home frequently for laundering.

My napping child will have direct supervision by a caregiver who is in the same room and has direct visual contact with him/her.
